We ever get a new school
We didn't read Shakespeare
Mr. McManus was shipped to another school

I lost my eyebrow pencil
Pat stopped talking
I could drive a certain two-toned green car
Mr. Hannagan weren't here

There were no falcons
My big Buick could run

I could drive
I was dictator of Cuba
Sue C. wasn't going steady

People could fly without an airplane
I lost my tongue
I hadn't come to Marlboro to live

I didn't graduate
You tell me
Patty ran out of clothes
I didn't have a nose
I lost my license
The "Met" disappeared

I never changed my mind
I broke my nails
I had a sister
I had money

Nixon had won
We didn't have those tests
Sweaters were never invented

I became a confirmed horse hater
We could fly like a bird
It weren't for Ward Park dances
The goal posts were an inch longer
To get along with Mr. Kronoff
Got a discipline

I knew when to be quiet
Fridays never came
I had black hair and were 5'2
I were in school every day
I had a '61 Cadillac
I studied
Mr. T. got angry
I had my license and a car
I never came to Marlboro
I did as I was told
I stopped feeding Beaulieu
There were no weekends
I couldn't think
I were President of the U.S.
I really were an angel
I moved to Southboro?
Charge accounts went out of style
I had a crew-cut
I graduated from High school
I had a million dollars

CLASS PROPHECY '61

It is the year 1981, JACK HOGAN, president of the Great Hollywood Race Track, has invited his graduating class of '61 to visit his home in Hollywood, California. His elaborate mansion designed by ROBERT FECTEAU and PETER PIERCE, was constructed by DENNIS FOURNIER, MARK LUNDBERG. TIMOTHY HANNON, GERRY MESSIER, and JOHN MacFARLANE landscaped the beautiful grounds surrounding the estate.

Among the honored guests attending are former class advisors, MISS HUTCH and MR. HAYES; former classmates RUTH GILBREATH, vice-president of the Nurses Association of America: KATHY JOHNSON, secretary to the president of the United States; and BILLY NAUMES, treasurer of the United States. They are now being chauffeured up the drive by PAT LOFTUS at the wheel of a new Cadillac limousine. Close behind the Cadillac are DAVE LYONS and JUDY HOLT in their new Jaguar. Standing on the closest knoll of the eighteen hole golf course is SKIZZ LIZOTTE, the newly-appointed Sports Editor of the New York Tribune; and JOHN FAY his friend and major cartoonist on the paper. PATTY CHIRAS and PAT CASSIDY are strolling contentedly up the lane discussing the great new trans-Atlantic bridge made possible by those three great engineers TOM AVANTS, HENRY BOURGEOIS, and DONALD SUGG.

From the direction of the dining room the voices of JANICE MARSHALL, PATRICIA BIGELOW, SHIRLEY BOUVIER, BEVERLY LENARD and KATHY CHAMBERLAIN can be heard as they rave over the delicious buffet luncheon prepared by those world-renowned chefs BOB GRAHAM and REED FAXON, very ably assisted by CAROL WHITAKER and LESLIE HOODE.

Serving the luncheon are LARRY KEEFT, DOROTHY HARRIS, DICK CHAPUT, EVELYN BRODERICK and DIANE McDONOUGH. The elaborate decorations for the party were designed by JOANNE STOICO and PATTY DELL'ERARIO, with the beautiful flowers adorning the room donated by CHARLES TROMBETTA and CONNIE MAURICE. Entertainment is being furnished by DAVE ROSSI and his famous combo, consisting of those all-time greats EDWARD MAHER, DAVE RUSSO, JAMES HOLT, JOE PICONE, and their vocalists KAREN FISHER, JUDY COHEN, and PAT BLAZEJEWSKI. With the conclusion of the afternoon's entertainment, the guests congregated in the clubhouse where such games as ping-pong are being enjoyed by RUTH HOLYOKE and JACK RYAN, KAREN PHILLIPO and LENNY SPEAR; pool, played by SKEETS DOWNEY, GEORGE DEMAURO, DENNIS CLARK, and ROLLY DESROCHERS, with EILEEN JOHNSON and JANE ANDERSON looking on. Through the picture window PATTY CARR, DONALD SOUCY, ELEANOR FLINT, and BILL MARINO are seen playing badminton. MARSHA LABRACHE and TINA MIELE are gayly cheering them on while BETTY CUMMINS complacently keeps score. Waiting patiently to play the winners are VIVIAN NAVA and MIKE MacLAUGHLIN.

LOUISE FELIX, NORMAN LINDSAY, PAUL LEFEVRE and AL ALDRICH are keeping their shooting-eyes in trim for their coming match against DANIEL MOORE, BRUCE RANKIN, PAUL TESSIER, and TERRY QUINN, which will be the deciding round of the North American Rifle Team Championship. At a safe distance, JOE DIBUONO is practicing his newly developed knuckle-ball, much to the dismay of catcher RON MARINO. Surrounding the swimming pool are JOYCE TURNER, HELEN FRICAULT, JOANNE TREMBLAY, LINDA BOISSE, and BARBARA DAY, looking as youthful as ever in their stylish swim-suits. From the pool come the delighted whistles of JOHN ZANCA, ED TOOHEY, PAUL LEDUC, and BOB WYCKSTROM.

On the other side of the clubhouse, the host's beautiful stables and racing stock are being admired by such current notables as RICHARD ARCHAMBEAULT, JEAN PALMER, PHIL STONE, and JOHN CARBONE. Five of his horses are being ridden around the track by PATTY GREENE, JIMMY HANSON, RICHARD BASTIS, SUE CURREN, and DOROTHY MANN. PETER PARKER, of the nationwide Parker Photographers Inc., and his assistants JIM BOULE, TOM TROTTA, and JOSEPH TRUDEAU are taking candid shots of many of their old classmates. Many of the quieter guests, including FRAN WILSON, WARREN SHELALES, DORIS WRIGHT, BOB LAVALLE, RITA ANTINERELLA, and NORMAN BOISSE, are discussing the recent moon-flight by ARTHUR CADIEUX, DICK CROSSMAN, and GEORGE HARAKLES. Not to be forgotten are DAVE KELBER, BILL HANSON, HENRY PACIFIC, and ARTHUR JOSEPHSON, who designed and built the ship. CHARLOTTE REGNIER, HAR-

RIET SAUNDERS, and NANCY LAPIERRE are slated to be the first women to enter outer space.

Such self-diffident guests as KATHY VALLINCOURT, SANDRA WILES, MARY SHEMILIGAN, KATHY SOTER, and SANDRA SCOTT have devoted their afternoon to preparing a sumptuous supper. The meal is to be served by MARY SPRATT, LINDA JESSING, BARBARA LEETE, JUNE SMITH, KATHY MYSHRALL, and CAROL MELKUNAS. After the refreshing meal, the guests contentedly retire to the dance hall. The first couples on the floor, FRAN NICOLETTA and ELAINE EVANGELOUS, followed by NANCY DUESEL and BARNEY FOISY. CALVIN O'COIN, ALAN SCHOFIELD, BILL

COUGHLIN, and JIM ROCHE are reminiscing, while JANET McFEE, MARY BONIN and CORRINA ELLIS are waiting for JOHN AURICCHIO and HENRY DECOTEAU to return with their wraps. Just as the two boys enter the room, MARYJANE GAUTHIER and her long-time companion, GAIL MARTIN, walk into the hall trying to explain why they're late. As the final coat is donned, the final good-bye is said, and the final well-wish given, a nostalgic mood settle over the group, leaving them with a feeling of happiness and benevolence, found only after the reunion of a memorable group of friends such as the CLASS OF '61.

David Kelber, Mr. William Kelleher, Richard Archambeault, Mark Lundberg, Henry Bourgeois, Arthur Cadieux.
